

JUDGES' PANEL RETURN FORM

(Your attention is drawn to the Judges' Panel Conditions set out in The Official Rules of the Society 2019)

If forms are not returned by 31 January each year, it will be assumed that the judge has not exhibited and benched birds during the past season

You are reminded that failure to submit the return form will result in automatic removal from the Judges' Panel and that no reminder will be issued. To ensure your form has been received at the BS Office please enclose a stamped addressed envelope when submitting the form for an acknowledgement of receipt.

It is your responsibility to ensure you have a valid receipt returned to you as a certificate of posting from the Post Office will not be accepted as proof of delivery to the BS Office.

If you hand your completed form to a representative of the Society at a meeting/show etc. please include a stamped addressed envelope. A receipt of the form will be sent to you by the BS Office.

The following are details of BS Patronage Shows at which I have exhibited and adjudicated during the past season and I confirm that I have complied with Judges' Panel Condition A.5. - 2019 BS Rules.
